

GERMANY TO RESUME SUBMARINE WAR

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Berlin, via Sayville wireless, Sept. 29.—All Germany today looks confidently for a renewal of ruthless submarine warfare.

The last remaining doubts that the government has been won over by the advocates of the plan to "starve out England" by the means of more than 300 submarines were dispelled by the Imperial chancellor's speech in the Reichstag yesterday.

"A German statesman," the chancellor said, "who would hesitate to use against this enemy (England) every available instrument of battle that would really shorten the war—such a statesman should be hanged."

The only man who may avert, or postpone, at least, the resumption of ruthless submarine warfare, is James W. Gerard, the American ambassador to Germany.

Upon the result of his visit to Washington, it is declared here, hinges the whole question. Though officially explained as a "vacation," his trip to the United States is believed to be in reality a mission from the German government in a last effort to break the British blockade.

It is believed, therefore, that the proposed, full-fledged U-boat campaign will not be initiated until his mission has failed.

Germany, according to an authentic authority, considers that the time has arrived when she can and must take advantage of the last paragraph of her Sussex note, in which it was made clear that her stand in the submarine issue might have to be reversed if Washington failed to force Great Britain to abandon the blockade as now carried out.

REPUBLICANS ADOPT A STATE PLATFORM

The Republican state conference at Saratoga on Thursday adopted the following platform:

"We, the representatives of the Republican party of the state of New York, in conference assembled, proud of its record and firm in our convictions, submit with confidence to the people this report of our conduct of government with our declaration of principles and pledges of future policies.

"The task confronting the Whitman administration on January 1, 1915.

"When the present administration assumed office on January 1, 1915, the four years of Democratic control, which had given to the people three governors in the brief span of two terms, had completely disorganized the state government. Scandals beginning in the executive and legislative chambers and tainting practically every department, had brought the good name of the state into disrepute and shaken the people's confidence in official integrity. Waste and corruption had so demoralized every phase of public service as to render the government incapable of performing its duties. The civil service had been debauched; the highway department so honeycombed with graft as to justify the finding of twenty-two indictments against public despottism; salaries had been increased and an enormous number of new offices created; all work on new prisons had been suspended, yet appropriations for outstanding obligations and for the adequate maintenance of the overcrowded charitable and curative institutions were totally inadequate.

In the period of two years under Governor Whitman and a Republican administration, order has been brought out of chaos; scandal, corruption and waste have been eliminated; and the business of government conducted in an efficient and economical manner.

State Finances.

"We declare for the continuance of the program of progress in state finance, applying the principles of budgetary reform so ably inaugurated by Governor Whitman and the Republican legislature, with expenditures scientifically classified, limited to the fiscal year, whereby the evils of lump sum allowances are eliminated, audit control established and the foundation laid for the intelligent, systematic administration of this vital function of government.

"We endorse the pay-as-you-go policy of Governor Whitman and the Republican legislature, which has placed a depleted state treasury on a sound financial basis with available revenue to meet every liability.

"We are committed to the second approval, and submission to the people of the constitutional amendment approved for the first time by the present Republican legislature, providing for the issue of serial instead of sinking funds state bonds which will result in an immense saving to the taxpayers of the state. We commend the action of the governor and legislature in maintaining the faith and credit of the state by making appropriations in accordance with the requirements of the constitution to keep up the sinking funds to meet the state's bonded debts.

"We commend the action of the legislature in abandoning the long prevailing and vicious practice of passing the finance bills during the closing hours of the session under an emergency message and endorse the legislation adopted at the last session, which provides for the submission of the finance bills to both houses by the finance and ways and means committees at a date sufficiently early to afford ample time for the discussion of the bills in detail.

"We commend the policy of the present Republican administration which, in addition to meeting other enormous burdens imposed by the preceding Democratic administration, courageously provided, out of current revenue funds, to meet a $3,600,000 canal construction deficit and obtained through a referendum to the people $27,000,000 to complete the canal system.

"We commend the present Republican administration, which, in the face of Democratic opposition, has provided adequate funds for the maintenance of the highways of the state, vital alike to our farming and industrial communities and our domestic commerce.

"We commend the liberal appropriations granted by the present Republican administration for the housing and care of the dependent, helpless and unfortunate, wards of the state, regarding as false economy that financial policy which ignores or neglects this public duty.

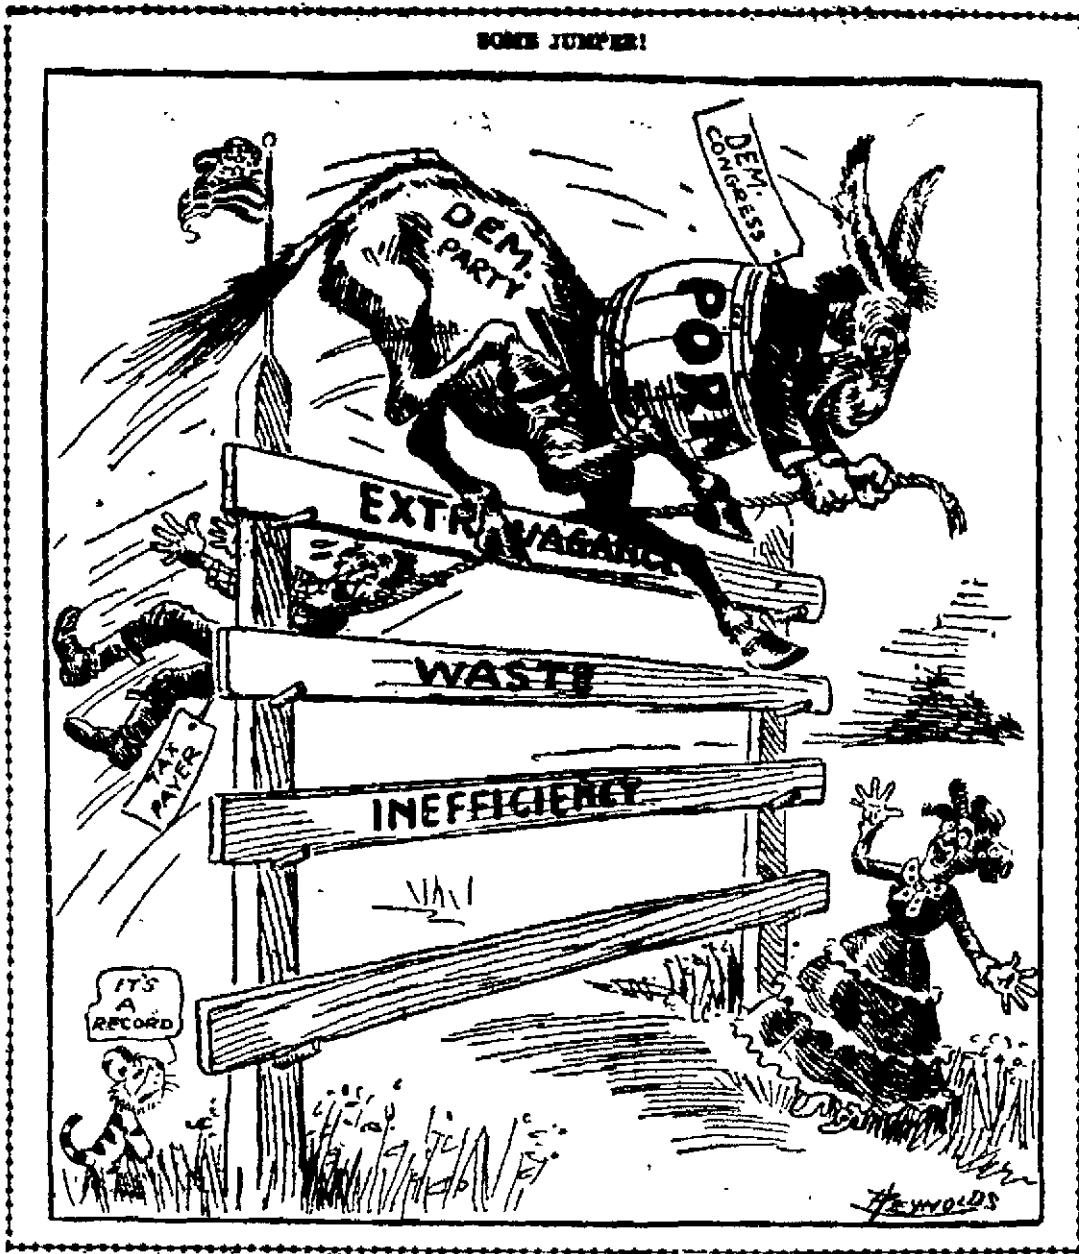

"We contrast with this constructive program the demoralization and chaos brought about by preceding Democratic administrations which violated every principle of sound state financing.

"By partial, incomplete overlapping and lump sum appropriations whereby the actual allowance for the needs of government were obscured.

"By refusal to provide revenues to meet appropriations made, thereby creating a cash deficit of $5,000,000 in July, 1915.

"By persistently refusing to provide adequately for the general current needs of the state and the maintenance of its activities, the deficiencies in such appropriations amounting under the Glyn administration to more than $10,000,000.

"By refusal to provide funds to meet deficiencies for the completion of our agricultural schools and colleges. The payroll of the department.

PARALYSIS CASES REPORTED TODAY

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Albany, Sept. 29.—Two additional deaths from infantile paralysis were reported today to the state health department from Ulster, Oneida county, and Orangeburg, Rockland county. This makes a total of 561 deaths since the disease started.

Today's cases:

Oneida county, 1.

Madison county, Chittenango, 1.

Oneida, 2.

Westchester county, Port Chester, 1.

Croton-on-Hudson, 1; Pleasantville, Eastchester, 2.

St. Lawrence county, Fowler, 1.

Wayne county, Clyde, 1.

Ontario county, Van Buren, 1.

East Syracuse, 1; J. S. Syracuse, 5.

Montgomery county, Palatine, 1.

Lewis county, Turen, 2.

Rockland county, Orangeburg, 2.

Sullivan county, Liberty, 2; Rockland, 1.

Orange county, Greenville, 1.

Ulster county, Highmount, 1; Shandaken, 2.

New York, Sept. 29.—Twenty-six new cases of infantile paralysis and 12 deaths were reported today. The total to date is 9,012 and 2,022 respectively.

Two Insurance Cases.

Late Thursday afternoon the jury in the case of Daniel McGrane against the Casualty Company of America brought in a verdict for the plaintiff for the sum of $100, the full amount sued for. The action was brought to recover on an accident policy held by McGrane. N. Frank O'Reilly with William Grogan of counsel appeared for Mr. McGrane, while J. Harold McCord appeared in behalf of defendant.

The verdict of $145 brought in by the jury in the case of Licardo against Mollie Miller and others, an action to recover on a horse trade, was reduced by Judge Jenkins to $125. The case was an appeal from a decision of Judge William D. Brinnier, Jr., in city court, the decision of Judge Brinnier being upheld by the higher court. When the case was tried in city court Mr. Licardo received a verdict for $96.

Lady Journalist Gets Peevish.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Thompson Falls, Mont., Sept. 29.—A. C. Thomas, Republican chairman of Saunders county, was shot and seriously wounded early today by Miss Edith Colby, a newspaper writer, who says that Thomas insulted her and then refused to apologize. Miss Colby charges that in addition to telling her he never gave her news because he would not "help any person who had lied about him and friends as she had done," Thomas also made a remark reflecting on her personal reputation. Thomas started to walk away when Miss Colby demanded an apology and she fired at him four times, two of the bullets taking effect.

No Higher Cuts on Hair.

Middletown barbers turned down a proposition to jump the prices of haircuts and shaves at a recent meeting. One merchant had all ready planned a safety razor sale in view of the proposed bill.

Wild Cows in Orange County.

William Bailey and Jerry Wallace, hunters of Highland Falls, Orange county, claim to have been chased by wild cows Wednesday night while hunting near Long Pond.

By the veto, or other disallowance, of appropriations for the care and housing of the state's unfortunate and dependents.

"By the action of Governor Glynn in rejecting a direct state tax, after his message to the legislature, declaring that such a tax was necessary to meet the financial crisis which existed in the last year of his term.

Administrative Efficiency.

"The great departments of state, presided over by elective officers, have been all administered; those officers are all reappointed; they serve the support of every citizen. The comptroller has reduced the cost of the department and effected savings in the collection of transfer taxes; the attorney general, in 1915, paid nothing for special counsel as against $100,000 in 1914; the secretary of state has effected a saving in the automobile bureau, while the receipts have largely increased; the state engineer, through a reorganization of his office, found it possible to reduce salaries by more than $25,000. Notwithstanding such reduction over 154 of the 299 miles of the barge canals opened for the public use have been completed under the administration and new contracts undertaken. The treasury of the state has been securely kept, without graft and without waste.

Highway Department.

The Democratic administration of this department from 1911 to 1912 was marked by incompetency, extravagance and scandal. Contracts were let without competitive bidding; others were awarded with such haste and disregard for requirements as to necessitate cancellation at a cost of over half a million dollars. Untried and unknown types of construction were carelessly adopted, only to be changed subsequently at great expense to the state. Favored contractors were paid to put down material that next year they were paid to remove. Corruption was prevalent. District attorneys had to be called in. Indictments were found. Convictions followed. Civil actions have been brought by the attorney general for the recovery of damages suffered by the state. Recoveries have been had in actions already tried and other actions are in the course of prosecution.

"Today the department is operating with all the efficiency of a great business corporation. Expensive advisory boards and all unnecessary and useless offices have been abolished. Appointments have been made from civil service lists.

"An efficiency rating plan has been adopted. Savings of over $200,000 were made in the first year of the Republican administration of the department, yet during the year 1915, approximately 2,200 miles of first class roads were constructed.

"The appropriation for maintenance during 1916 was $30,000 less than the appropriation for 1915, although there had been an increased mileage of over 700 miles.

Department of Agriculture.

"An investigation has been undertaken to determine the character of the agricultural imports into the state, with a view to encouraging the home production. A campaign for the reclamation of farm lands is being vigorously prosecuted. The state fair, which had been permitted to languish under Democratic rule, has received substantial encouragement, and is once more furnishing a genuine stimulus to agricultural developments. New buildings have been provided for and extensive improvements undertaken in the plants of our agricultural schools and colleges. The payroll of the department.

ENGINEER MAY LOSE A FINGER

J. J. Richards of New Durham, an engineer on the West Shore express train leaving Kingston at 12:05 o'clock Thursday afternoon, will probably lose part of the little finger of his left hand as a result of the finger having caught between the reverse lever and the brake pipe at Newburgh Thursday afternoon. The train was an extra long one and required a lot of pressure to start and when the engineer threw on the power the lever sprang back, catching the finger. It cut clean through the heavy glove and out part of the finger. Mr. Richards was taken to St. Luke's hospital, where an attempt was made to graft the end of the finger, but it is doubtful if the injured member will grow together again. Mr. Richards will be off a month as a result.

Unusual Events Briefly Told in Telegraph Despatches.

New York—Mrs. Latore, a widow of New Haven, has just completed her 20th round trip to Italy since the war began to see her fiancé, an Italian cavalry lieutenant. They will be married on the next trip.

New York—Knowing only love's language, Pietro Rienza, who speaks only Italian, and Mrs. Katie Plute, who understands only the Hungarian tongue, were married here.

Cly, Pa.—The smallest public school in the world, containing desks for 12 pupils, located near here, is seeking a teacher. This year only two pupils, both girls, will attend.

Baronne, N. J.—Mrs. Thomas Williams complained that she gleaned drift wood from Newark Bay for the fire while her husband toasted his feet preparatory to treating Mrs. Ruth Lynch, a neighbor, to a jitney ride.

New York—Facing a charge of attempting to murder his bride of two weeks by pushing her out of a six-story window of an apartment building, Isadore Millard hanged himself today in his cell in the Bronx county jail. He used a strip of bedding, attaching it to the bars at the top of the cell.

Four Illustrated Lectures.

Beginning with Monday evening, next, October 2, Dr. William Elsing will deliver four illustrated lectures on "The Making of Our World," in the chapel of the First Reformed Church. Dr. Elsing, who has been engaged in some remarkable home missionary work, is well known to Kingstonians as a finished speaker, having preached in the First Reformed Church his summer, and it is said that the illustrations of his lectures are most remarkable and beautiful. On Monday evening next, the topic will be "The Reign of Fire," on October 9, "The Warfare of Water," on October 22, "The Wonders of Snow and Ice," and on October 29, "The Crown of Creation." All lectures will begin at eight o'clock.

HANDCUFFED BOYS FOR PETTY THEFT

Three lads on a canoe trip from New York to Albany were arrested on complaint of J. S. Corning of Red Top, near Highland, for stopping on his estate and taking several old ivory articles, a lantern, a watch and an old knife. Deputy Sheriff I. Eayles of Hyde Park arrested the boys who were taken to Poughkeepsie and afterward brought before Justice of the Peace T. Edward DuBois at Highland who fined the lads $35 apiece. Two boys were able to pay and a third was allowed to go home for the money. Rather than have the youngsters go to jail to sleep, Edward DuBois lodged them in his law office. When brought to Highland, the lads, who seemed quite harmless, were handcuffed by the deputy.

The boys were John Rogers and Emerson Bennett of Newark, N. J., and Edward Smith of Brooklyn, each about 16 or 17 years old.

SYMPATHY STRIKE PROVES A FIZZLE

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, Sept. 29.—Although a stunning blow has been dealt to the hopes of strike leaders by the failure of the building trades workmen and teamsters to join a general walk-out in sympathy with the traction employees, Hugh Frayne, chairman of the new union board of strategy, declared today that "The fight is still on."

"We have not given up the idea of a general tie-up," said Frayne. "The apparent failure of some unions to join us was due to the fact that they did not have time to act."

The Allied Building Trades and the Teamsters, comprising about 129,000 men, have deferred decisive action for a week and in the meantime strike leaders are now working to bring about the general sympathetic strike on next Monday that was scheduled to begin on Wednesday.

Police Commissioner Woods, who has been following the situation, and that the labor situation is less menacing today than at any time since the elevated railway and subway men quit.

The danger of a complete tie-up of elevated and subway lines through action by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers also is diminishing rapidly.

There has been a sharp decline in the violence which marked the strike situation during the past 48 hours.

One More Day to File.

All candidates for office at the recent primaries must file a bill of their campaign expenses within ten days after the primaries, according to the election law. Failure to do so is a misdemeanor. Saturday night is the last date statements of money received and expended in the campaign may be filed with the election commissioners.

HUGHES CARRIES DELEGATES WITH RINGING SPEECH

Most Enthusiastic Welcome to Republican Presidential Candidate at Saratoga Conference—Bitter Denunciation of Olney's Defense of Wilson Policies—Schoonmaker an Elector.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Saratoga, Sept. 29.—A welcome home inspired Charles E. Hughes last night to his best campaign effort when, in a ringing speech before the Republican state convention, he produced letters and telegrams that belied President Wilson's defense of the Adamson so-called eight-hour law. He also replied to ex-Secretary of State Richard Olney's defense of the president's position in the strongest terms he has used since his campaign started.

"The distinguished former secretary of state," said Mr. Hughes, "said in substance that I defied the judicial arm and appeared in the motley garb of an ordinary seeker for office. I did not doff the judicial ermine, and I submit to you that you know, and every American knows, that it fell from my shoulders unsullied."

Six thousand enthusiastic Republicans who had cheered and yelled and stamped and marched around the convention hall for ten minutes when the nominee stepped to the stage with Governor Whitman, arose as one man and shouted when Mr. Hughes made this brief declaration. There was no doubt then about the welcome home. It was the old Hughes, too, who was speaking, and New York's G. O. P. represented in the state convention knew it.

Declares No Apology Needed.

"No American need apologize for being a candidate for office," Mr. Hughes went on. "I am not. I desired to remain on the bench. I had no desire to return to politics, but there came a summons which no honorable man could refuse. I did assume the garb—call it motley or what you will—of a seeker of office, and I am now before the American people seeking the highest office in its gift. For what purpose? Not that I covet power, but I do covet the opportunity, if it is afforded to me, to maintain American rights and American honor."

"Our distinguished former secretary of state has made some observations with respect to American rights. He makes a mistake in assuming or suggesting that the criticism of the administration's foreign policy is, as he puts it, 'that our peace is a peace without honor,' and 'if our national honor should be consulted, the United States would be fighting.' We have no occasion to get into war with respect to known rights that any nation will respect, if we know how to convince that nation that we are firm in maintaining them."

"I like Mr. Olney's pen as a secretary better than his pen as an apologist. We gave no convincing sign that we meant to enforce rights. That is the difference between resolution in fact and resolution in theory."

Makes Eight-Hour Law Issue.

This was not all Mr. Hughes had to say to Mr. Olney, but he assailed the president's stand on the railroad labor situation before he took up in detail the statement of Cleveland's secretary of state. His speech to the state convention was the keynote of the campaign in New York, and the prominence which Mr. Hughes gave to the eight-hour wage issue raised that issue to the national importance that it has been assuming during the candidate's second western tour.

Mr. Wilson has defended the passage of the Adamson act on the ground that the crisis was sudden and demanded immediate action by congress. Mr. Hughes read letters and telegrams that passed between the United States chamber of commerce, the president and Senator Newlands, of the senate interstate commerce committee, a month before the president tried to settle the controversy in the Washington conference with brotherhood chiefs and railroad managers.

Mr. Hughes charged that the president's "surrender" to force was utterly indefensible. The act passed to avert the crisis had been dealt to American business and American labor—a confession of weakness, and the president's defense of it, as well as the law itself, an attempt to masquerade and blind intelligent American thought. Nothing more serious had happened in public life, he declared, since he knew anything about public life in this country.

"The truth was," said Mr. Hughes, "that the executive destroyed the moral strength of the situation when he threw up his hands, yielded the principle of arbitration, and went to congress. So far as the morale of the situation was concerned he had fled a surrender already made. The administration chose its ground, and with manifest view to partisan expediency. In the closing days it acted with swiftness, and it cannot now cry that a Republican candidate a thousand miles away should have saved it from carrying out its fixed determination."

Applause Greeted Name.

The leaders who prevailed were successful in smoothing over all threatened differences on matters to come before the convention and keeping out a declaration which might lead to national controversy. The convention was enthusiastic, but the absence of any debatable questions on the floor robbed old-timers of excitement they had hoped for.

The name of Hughes, when first mentioned by Chairman Nathan L. Miller, ex-judge of the court of appeals, was cheered for several minutes. The name of Governor Whitman was warmly received, but not with the same enthusiasm. Chairman Miller made a telling attack on the Wilson administration and commended the administration of Governor Whitman.

Presidential Electors.

The electors at large chosen were George Eastman of Rochester and Thomas R. Proctor of Utica. The other electors selected follow: Clarence H. Mackey, Roslyn; Robert W. Higbie, Jamaica; Stephen J. Burrows, William W. Owens, Lewis M. Swayze, Edmund W. Voorhis, Charles B. Morton, Brooklyn.

Richard W. Lawrence, Bronx.

Alexander S. Cochran, Yonkers; W. P. Hamilton, Sterlington; Joseph Stroch, Newburgh; John D. Schronmaker, Kingston; Louis I. Waldman, Albany; E. H. Cluett, Troy; Howard G. Dewey, Gloversville; Herbert G. Aldridge, Gouverneur; Charles D. Bingham, Watertown; Seth G. Heacock, Ilion; George A. Kent, Binghamton; Nathan M. Miller, Syracuse; Frederick W. Griffith, Palmyra; Allanson R. Houghton, Corning; James Gould Cutler, Rochester; Valcott J. Humphrey, Warsaw; John K. Walter, George B. Urban, Buffalo.

Henry H. Persons, East Aurora.

Franklin J. McCarty, Silver Creek. The state committee left six vacancies on the ticket, and adjourned to meet in New York on October 9, when the matter will be settled. It is likely a compromise will be reached and seven Progressives chosen as electors.

Three New Cases OF TYPHOID FEVER

Two new cases of typhoid fever on Thursday afternoon and one new case today were reported to Dr. Frank A. Johnston, the health officer. All three cases are widely scattered.

No new cases of infantile paralysis had been reported up to noon today.

TO INSTALL NEW PASTOR SUNDAY

The Rev. F. T. Schroeder who has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran Church on Livingston street, came to Kingston on Thursday with his wife and three children, and has taken up his residence at the parsonage. Pastor Schroeder will be installed at the Sunday morning service in the church. He succeeds the Rev. F. P. Wilhelm, resigned.

FARMERS INCENSED AT HUNTERS' ACTS

Because of the influx of hunters, some who are so disorderly as to damage farm property and livestock, many farmers in Ulster county are posting their property against all trespassing. This step is made necessary by the practice of some gunners who shoot chickens or ducks near farm yards and also take an insane delight in riddling signs against trespassing with birdshot.

A provision of the conservation law protects farmers posting their lands and imposes a penalty of $25 for destroying or defacing a sign. An unusual number of farmers have been making use of signs printed at The Freeman office and many of them state that they intend to go the limit in protecting their farms from the annual invasion this season.

Recovering From Typhoid.

Joseph Beichert and Miss Marie Beichert, children of Asst. Station Master J. Philip Beichert of the West Shore railroad, are recovering from their severe attacks of typhoid fever. The son has been at the Benedictine Sanitarium where his condition has taken a turn for the better the last two days while the little girl has been ill at the family home on Foxhall avenue.

Wilson Day Barbecue.

A Wilson day barbecue will be held at Robinson's Inn park on Saturday and Democrats from the Hudson Valley cities and towns will be in attendance. J. J. McGrath, chairman of the Ulster County Democratic Committee, will be in attendance as will also Democratic candidates for state offices.

STAIN REMOVERS.

Enough to Cover All Kinds of Your Needs.

INK, FRUIT, WINE, GRASS.

An Expert Tells Us How to Save Our Beautiful Table Linens, Silk Shirts and White Flannels From the Blight of Spots.

Ink is the stain with which you come most frequently in contact and yet can be removed by the use of our stain remover.

Milk, salt and lemon juice, oxalic acid, tartaric acid, hydrochloric acid, javelle water, all remove ink.

Milk is applicable to a new stain, fabric and color delicate. Place spot in a bowl of milk. Allow it to remain until milk is colored. If necessary change milk once or twice. When stain has been removed wash out milk. Salt and lemon juice remove ink from rougher fabrics—cotton and linen (white only), stain old or new. Sprinkle spot with salt, squeeze on lemon juice, place in sunshine and wash when stain is removed. Oxalic acid is applicable to any material of any color, no matter how delicate. It is of especial use on colored silk, stain old or new. Procure 3 cents' worth of oxalic acid crystals; dissolve these in two cups of warm water; add a tablespoonful of acetic acid, if possible. Apply with eye dropper to spot; if color should leave the fabric apply chloroform, and it will be restored at once. Oxalic acid will remove an iron ink stain. The acid unites with such ink as to form a new compound which is soluble in water, a compound which will easily wash out and be colorless. If the ink is not an iron ink oxalic acid will fail to remove it. In such a case use tartaric acid for fresh stains, any fabric, any color (colored silk excepted). Buy tartaric acid crystals. Make it into a solution. Use a tablespoonful of acid in two cups of warm water. Apply with an eye dropper. Hydrochloric acid and javelle water—use these only on the most stubborn stain after all other reagents fail. Place stained portion over bowl of diluted ammonia. Apply acid or javelle water with eye dropper. After each drop of acid touches the stain press the cloth in the bowl of ammonia. This will prevent the acid from harming the thread of the fabric. Continue until stain disappears.

Boiling water, salt and boiling water or milk, tartaric acid, alcohol and chloroform will remove fruit and wine stains. If the stain is fresh place spotted portion over a bowl and pour boiling water through it. The water must be boiling. If ineffective put salt on spot and use again. If spot still persists use boiling milk and salt. Tartaric acid made as directed above will remove wine or fruit stains from any fabric, any color, colored silk excepted. Apply as usual with an eye dropper to spot. Alcohol will also remove these stains. If the alcohol should remove the color of the material with the stain apply chloroform to restore it.

Washing soda, naphtha soap, ammonia, alcohol and a paste of molasses and flour will remove grass stains. Where grass has stained white flannel trousers dissolve washing soda in water, one cupful of soda, two cupfuls of water. Heat the solution. Make a paste of naphtha soap. Immerse stain and gently rub. This process failing, if the stain is fresh use ammonia and water. Grass stains also wash out in alcohol. A paste of molasses and flour spread on a grass stain will remove it without affecting the color. Allow the paste to remain on spot several hours.

Men's Shirts and Ties

IN A SPECIAL AND ATTRACTIVE DISPLAY

The Fall Fashions in Men's Shirts and Neckties are fine. There is plenty of colors as there should be, for 'tis on these that a man depends for the "gaiety of his garb."

But the colors are well combined. While eloquent of a man's "joy in living," they do not shriek about it.

Men of good taste are daily expressing their satisfaction in the new shirts and ties we have provided for them to choose from.

MILTON.

Milton, Sept. 29.—C. S. Northrip has the school tax list ready and will receive taxes until October 23, at one per cent.

We hear from Mr. Waele, our former genial station agent, that his son, John, his wife and charming little daughter are living in Detroit, Mich., where he is known as "Waele, the Welder of Detroit." His father-in-law, Isaac Parry, is also in business in that city.

P. A. Lynes is having a bath room installed in his residence.

Mrs. Mary Balkin of Warwick is a guest at C. M. Woolsey's.

The Rev. N. A. Newbaker will preach in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning next. Services will be as follows: Sunday school will reopen at 10. Morning worship at 11. Subject of sermon, "Give Attendance to Reading." Epworth League devotional meeting at 7 p. m. Topic, "How Money Spending Reveals Character." Leader,

Walter R. Clarke. Evening worship at 7:30. Subject of sermon, "The Way of the Transgressor."

The Ladies' Aid Society meet with Mrs. R. M. Rounds this evening.

A meeting of the Sunday school board was held at the home of the superintendent, F. C. Wood, on Wednesday evening. William Donaldson, son, Jr., was elected secretary to take the place of K. A. Northrip.

The colic dog owned by C. S. Northrip is a son of "Tessie," who was owned by Robert Bacon, when ambassador to France. She with her father and mother won first prize at Madison Square Garden dog show.

C. Payell Townsend left for Western University, Conn., on Tuesday to begin his senior year.

Malcolm A. Northrip expects to leave on Sunday morning for Syracuse University.

A special meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society will be held at the home of Mrs. A. B. Clarke on Wednesday, October 4, at 3 o'clock. Each one is asked to bring her wife box, so they may be opened. A social hour will be held at the close of the meeting.

E. Y. Jenkins is a guest at C. S. Northrip's.

ULSTER PARK.

Ulster Park, Sept. 29.—Mr. and Mrs. E. Terpening and daughter, Catherine, of Kingston called Sunday on Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Terpening.

The Misses Edna Snyder, Mollie Quigley of Kingston and Eva Wheeler of Ulster Park spent Sunday with Miss Julia Churchwell.

Messrs. Charles Dorrance and John Van Oostenbree of New York city spent the week end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Van Oostenbree.

Mr. and Mrs. William Parker and brother, Maynard, of Poughkeepsie spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wells of Poughkeepsie spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. George Eckert.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wheeler spent

Mrs. LEEDER'S MILLINERY IS A Revelation of Fashion

It is impossible to look at our brilliant display of Early Autumn Hats without feeling the influence of the best of Paris. Even though you must realize that some of them come from our own workroom—the handwork of our own expert New York trimmer—you will hardly be able to discriminate between the imported and the American designs and trimmings. Every new motif of Fashion is here mirrored for Saturday.

Chic Hats Are Inexpensive Here!

The woman who must skimp on her outfitting expenditures will find this Millinery Shop the one above all others where her dollars will bring the greatest returns. Our store is not a large one, our running expenses are moderate, and as our stock is made up of the best and newest conceptions that Fashion decrees, we can and do give the

BEST MILLINERY VALUES!

Come in Saturday and try on some of our smart models. Whatever style you choose to look at, you will find it beautiful and admiration-inspiring to a new degree of charm. Make no mistake in the address of our store.

TEICHLER'S BAKERY ADVANCES PRICES

The first Kingston baker to announce an advance in the price of foodstuffs is G. W. Teichler with a shop at No. 171 Broadway. In an advertisement found elsewhere in The Freeman Mr. Teichler states that on and after the first of the month small cakes, cookies, patties, etc., will be advanced from ten cents to twelve cents a dozen, and other cakes, cream puffs, etc., from twenty to twenty-four cents. The price of bread, rolls, etc., remains unchanged for the present. Mr. Teichler states that the advance in prices is due solely to the high cost of flour, sugar and other material used in baking.

SAUGERTIES

Saugerties, Sept. 29.—William C. Ohley, of North American Lodge, No. 315, Knights of Pythias, of Saugerties, has been appointed by Grand Chancellor John A. R. Kapps, deputy grand chancellor of the 15th Pythian district of New York, comprising the following lodges in Ulster county: Franklin, No. 37, Kingston; Hope, No. 65, Port Ewen; Ulster, No. 76, Rondout; North American, No. 115, Saugerties; Walkkill, No. 152, Altigerville; Zeno, No. 213, Highland; Rondout Valley, New Paltz.

A new outbreak of infantile paralysis has appeared in Saugerties, one positive and two suspected cases developing Thursday. A child five years of age of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bradley of Montgomery street is quarantined. Representatives from the state department of health will diagnose the other two cases today.

John Hughes, the popular ball player, is seriously ill at his home on Montgomery street.

The Misses Jennie, Hanna and Fannie Post of Ulster avenue have purchased a Reo 1917 automobile. Mrs. Byron L. Davis of Main street has returned from several weeks' stay at Atlantic City.

Miss Lena McCarthy, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Clayton Swart, on Partition street, has returned to her home in Millbrook, N. Y.

Miss Josephine Maxwell of John street is taking care of Mrs. Gardam, who is ill at her home on Washington avenue.

Mrs. F. D. Wygant of Ulster avenue is visiting in Beacon, N. Y. Rev. George A. Shaban and family of Lakeville, Conn., are visiting relatives in town.

To Close Bakery.

The William Klepser bakery, upper Main street, Catskill, will close on Saturday for an indefinite period of time on account of the high cost of flour. Another reason for the closing is on account of Mr. Klepser's ill health. Mr. Klepser is greatly in need of a vacation while the store is closed. Mrs. Klepser stated Thursday morning that the bakery might be reopened in two months' time, but she could give no definite information concerning the opening. The Klepser bakery has been established in Catskill for twenty-five years and during that time has made many satisfied patrons—Catskill Mail.

Medical Society to Meet.

A regular meeting of the Medical Society of the County of Ulster will be held at the city hall, common council chambers, on Tuesday evening 3, at 8:30 o'clock. There will be a paper on "The Diagnosis and Treatment of Incipient Tuberculosis" by Robert Abrahams, M. D., Adjunct Professor of Medicine, Post Graduate Medical School and Hospital, New York, and a discussion on typhoid fever, opened by J. I. Becker, M. D., of Highland and A. S. Vrooman, M. D., of Kingston.

New Lodge at Rhinebeck.

A public meeting will be held this evening at Starr Institute Hall, Rhinebeck, at which time a new Camp of the Patriotic Order of Sons of America will be instituted at that place. The state president and executive committee will be present as will also the officers and degree team of Washington Camp, No. 2, of this city. The Kingston members will leave Kingston Point by boat at 7 o'clock p. m.

Parent-Teachers' Meetings.

A special meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association will be held at all the schools of the city on next Tuesday, October 3, at 3:30 p. m., for the purpose of choosing a delegate to attend the State Mothers' Assembly to be held at Binghamton, October 10-13. Every parent is urged to be present at this meeting.

New Cedar Street Market.

Jacob Myers will open a meat market in the Albrecht building, corner of Cedar and Prospect streets, on Saturday. This store was used formerly as a meat market but has been vacant for a short time. The opening of the shop by Mr. Myers will be a great convenience to the residents of the neighborhood. The market will be known as the Cedar Street Market.

Reserved Seats.

Chief of Police William Kreuger and Officer Joseph Reilly, having found the stone wall in front of the county building too cold to rest upon, have provided themselves with cushions and are now able to watch the passing throng in comfort—Catskill Mail.

Dance at Wilbur.

A dance under the auspices of the ladies of the Church of the Holy Name, will be held in Holy Name Hall on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. A small admission will be charged. Refreshments will be served.

And Now—New Curtains and Draperies for the Home

Windows without curtains or draperies look as bare as an office building. They seem to lose their homelike appearance; and while during the Summer months draperies were dispensed with to help make the home cool, with Autumn here it makes it necessary that you look to making your home cozy and comfortable. Nothing adds more to the coziness and warmth of a room than its draperies.

KAZAM DEFILE IS AN HISTORIC SPOT

By Telegraph to The Freeman

Washington, D. C., Sept. 29.—Just above the Hungarian town of Orsova, recently reported captured by the Rumanians, is the scenically magnificent Kazam Defile of the Danube, described in the following war geography bulletin issued by the National Geographic Society:

"Until the Hungarian government, at the instigation of Count Stephen Szechenyi, constructed the famous Szechenyi Road in 1834-35, the Kazan Defile of the Danube has been impassable on either bank of the river for all the centuries which stretched between the destruction of Trajan's remarkable roadway, built in 103 A. D., and modern times.

"At Semlin, a few miles above Belgrade, the Danube is more than 1,700 yards wide with a depth of 40 feet, but at the Kazan Defile its waters are restricted to a width of less than 180 yards, and have a depth in some places of 200 feet. The rapids of the river begin a short distance above the defile and rush over great ledges of rock.

"Trajan's Road, which extended from Orsova to Columbae, might well have been rated one of the lesser wonders of the ancient world. Traces of the military path, from five to seven feet wide built just above the high water level are still to be seen on the right or Serbian bank of the river. At points where the Roman engineers encountered the seemingly insuperable obstacle of perpendicular walls of rock which could not be pierced as blasting powder was unknown, there are visible the holes bored in the stone from which projected the wooden beams that supported the covered galleries hanging to the face of the cliffs. At the end of the defile the time-worn rocks still bear the famous 'Tabula Trajana,' now hardly legible. The inscription is supposed to commemorate Trajan's first campaign against the Dacians. "On the left or Hungarian bank of the river, high above the Szechenyi Road, is a narrow hole in the face of the Szechenyi Mountain, pointed out to tourists as the entrance to Veteran's Cavern, which derives its name from the Leonidas-like Austrian general who with 400 soldiers held at bay a vastly superior Turkish force for three months in 1692. Twenty-six years later it was again held by the Austrians under a Major Stein. The cavern is sufficiently large to garrison 600 men and there are evidences that it was used during the Roman occupation of this region.

"Scientifically the Kazan Defile suggests some of the wildest and most impressive gorges to be found in the Canadian Rockies. Bare rocks from time to time rise suddenly from deep water, while on both sides there is a succession of precipitous hills, some free of vegetation and others clad with forests of beech, walnut and oak. Through this narrow gorge have flowed back and forth for hundreds of years the tides of Christian and Mohammedan civilization. For ages it has been one of the great channels of communication between the west and the east."

PLATTEKILL

Plattekill, Sept. 28.—The quarantine on children has been removed and the Sunday school sessions will be resumed in the Methodist Church Sunday morning as usual.

The Schoonmaker Quartet of Newburgh will render vocal selections and entertain at the Methodist Church Monday evening, October 2. It is reported that both local schools will open Monday, October 2. Harry Greenfield of this place is attending high school in New York city. Harry has the best wishes of his many friends, whose sincerity in his success in gaining a fine education is evident.

Mrs. James B. Palmer attended the annual convention of the members of the Ulster County W. C. T. U. held at New Paltz Wednesday.

The Misses Abbie and Dorothy Gilman of New York city visited their aunt, Mrs. Frank Carpenter, last week.

WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION

Annual Convention Held in New Paltz on Wednesday Last Only One Day, but Much Business Was Transacted.

(Official Report.)

The thirty-sixth annual meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union met in the Methodist Church at New Paltz on Wednesday at 9 a. m., the time being devoted strictly to business, endeavoring to get the work usually taking two days, in two sessions.

In the absence of Mrs. M. L. Stephens, because of illness, Mrs. Edward Scofield of Highland, conducted the devotional service. The service was opened by singing "Jesus, Saviour, Pilot Me" followed by prayer by Mrs. Stevens of Highland and Scripture readings.

The convention was then called to order by the president, Mrs. Martha H. Bell of Milton, who appointed the following committees: Subscriptions to State and National Papers—Mrs. Edward Scofield, Highland; credentials—Mrs. J. B. Rose, Highland; Miss Margaret Elding.

The recording secretary, Mrs. Albert Palmer of Wallkill, called the roll.

Mrs. Charles M. Harcourt of New Paltz gave the address of welcome, saying the coming of the W. C. T. U. had been somewhat in the nature of a surprise party. New Paltz was glad the county looked upon them as a friend, for a friend in need is a friend indeed. Another cause of gladness was that after Sunday next New Paltz will be a dry town and any one can travel from Poughkeepsie to Sky Top on dry territory.

The Rev. J. M. Douglas, pastor of the M. E. Church, presented greetings from the churches, and spoke of the great strides prohibition has lately taken in our state.

Mrs. Sarah Pratt of Highland thanked the previous speakers for their kind welcome, and reminded the delegates they had only today, so therefore they must use it well, that at the end of day we may be thrice happy we have passed this way.

In the absence of the vice president, the president called Mrs. Pratt to the chair while she gave her annual address, in part as follows: Those present are those who feel the responsibility of the work. Through quarantine regulations our work for the children has been greatly crippled, but our medical officers are to be commended for their splendid efforts in safeguarding the health of our children. Yet it makes us wonder why men are not so keen to safeguard from the giant evil of intemperance those children whose homes and lives are being ruined by this blight.

The continuance of the fearful war in Europe discourages our work in a high degree. It is our duty in the interests of peace to discourage the militant spirit. The one thousand dollars received from the John D. Hunt estate has been wisely invested by our county treasurer, and a vote of thanks is due Mrs. D. B. Hendricks for her loyalty to the county and unselfishness, by giving the county this money, which legally is her own. Occupation of the soil is the best preventive of weeds, and it is the same principle which ought to be applied to the child as it grows up. We ought to have done good work during the period of quarantine when the children were shut up in their homes. Leadership is greatly needed to carry on the work in local unions.

We welcome all our new members. We miss those who have gone before, who are now serving day and night in His temple. We have great incentive to redouble our zeal in the no license campaign of 1917 and rejoice with New Paltz and other towns which become dry on Sunday. The county needs in its membership individual conviction for necessity of the work, to realize we must be in earnest and that we are not encased in its for past time. There should be an organizer in every union.

Mrs. Bell's address was received with a rising vote of thanks. The corresponding secretary, Mrs. Rose, gave a most interesting report. Eighteen unions reported a total of 861 members and 94 honorary members. There were 16 removals by death. Total of funds raised for temperance work by local unions $778.18. Special mention was made of Clintondale for its Young People's Branch work. Dry Brook for reviving an old union, some of the members having to walk five and six miles to attend the meetings. Highland's increase of membership and finances. New Paltz the greatest number of regular meetings. Port Jervis for its unique work in raising its membership and Wallkill for the many lines of activity successfully carried on. This report was also received with a rising vote of thanks.

Mrs. D. B. Hendricks of Kingston, county treasurer, reported money raised and expended with a balance of $118.55 after all bills were paid. The secretary of the Young People's Branch, Mrs. Alice Crispell, of New Paltz reported that Ulster county received a silver star and royal blue ribbon at the "Y. P." state convention for efficient work. A new branch has been organized at Cottage Hill. At Shawangunk with some outside help they have erected a new building costing $4,200 to be used by church societies as well as the Y. P. B.

Mrs. Doyle, our state president, has requested that every union appoint a Y. P. B. secretary whether there have been a branch or not. There was a gain here in the organization of two unions in Ulster county, and also to Mrs. Stephens, the vice president.

Mrs. Scofield and Mrs. Mary Bennett of Dutchess county, a formidable lady, formerly superior, tendered of franchise, Mrs. Kate Covert, of Clintondale. Members were urged to help in the enrollment returns to be in by November 1st.

Notes of sympathy from the union were voted to Mrs. Albert, who is very seriously ill, and who has been in the organization of two unions in Ulster county, and also to Mrs. Stephens, the vice president.

Mrs. Scofield and Mrs. Mary Bennett of Dutchess county, a formidable lady, formerly superior, tendered of franchise, Mrs. Kate Covert, of Clintondale. Members were urged to help in the enrollment returns to be in by November 1st.

At the close of the county officers' reports, taken by the trustees in reference to the election of officers for the ensuing year was the next number on the program. The chair appointed Mrs. Alice Crispell of New Paltz, Mrs. Kate Covert of Clintondale, Mrs. Mary Bennett of Highland, Mrs. Alfred C. Jenkins of Milton, Miss Laura Snyder of Cottage Hill and Mrs. Conline of Plattekill tellers and the following officers were elected: president, Mrs. M. L. Stevens, Gardiner, vice president, Mrs. J. P. Rose, Highland, corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. Albert Palmer, Wallkill, recording secretary, Mrs. D. B. Hendricks, Kingston, treasurer, Mrs. Alice Crispell, New Paltz, Y. P. B. secretary, Mrs. Minnie Palmer, Clintondale, L. T. L. secretary, Mrs. Snyder of Cottage Hill led in the noonday prayer. The morning session closed with singing the Doxology. The delegates adjourned to the basement of the church to partake of lunch and the afternoon session was held in the coffee, also fruit.

At the executive session which met at 1 p. m., Mrs. Scofield led in prayer. An invitation from the Clintondale Union to hold the institute at Clintondale in May was presented by their president, Mrs. Minnie Palmer. Plattekill Union also extended an invitation to the county union to hold the next annual meeting in Plattekill, presented by Mrs. Helen Palmer, president of that union.

Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Hendricks were appointed delegates to attend the state convention in Saratoga October 9-10. It was recommended that future gatherings delegates will bring their lunch for the first day, which will lighten the burden considerably for the entertaining unions.

Afternoon Session.

Mrs. Sarah C. Pratt, president of Highland union, led the prayer service, requesting all present to stand and repeat the 23rd Psalm and Lord's Prayer.

The convention was called to order and the minutes of the previous session read and approved. The minutes of the executive session were read and all recommendations adopted.

The following are the superintendents of work appointed by the executive committee for the coming year: Scientific temperance instruction, Mrs. Emma G. Carpenter, Gardiner; Sunday school work, Mrs. Mary G. Galloway, Wallkill; evangelistic work, Mrs. Edward Young, Milton; penal and reformatory work, Miss Alice Kierstedt, Kingston; soldiers and sailors, Mrs. George LeFevre, Forest Glen; mothers' meetings and moral education, Mrs. Frank Schoonmaker, Wallkill; mercy, Mrs. J. Silliman, Highland; anti-narcotics, Mrs. Helen A. Palmer, Gardiner; R. D. fair work, Mrs. William Graham, Ellenville; press work, Mrs. Webster Hare, Wallkill; flower mission, Miss C. A. Deyo, New Paltz; peace and arbitration, Mrs. J. D. Piper, Highland R. D.; Sabbath observance, Mrs. E. J. Ransome, Highland; colored work and foreign speaking people, Mrs. Sarah C. Pratt, Highland; white ribbon recruits, Mrs. Wells Weaver, Highland R. D.; school of methods and parliamentary drill, Mrs. Alice Crispell, New Paltz; franchise, Mrs. Kate Covert, Highland R. D.; social meetings and red letter days, Miss Katherine Deyo, of Wallkill; non-alcoholic medication, Mrs. Eva Ackhart, Clintondale; temperance publications, Mrs. Ed. Ward Scofield, Highland; auditors, Mrs. E. B. Snyder, Mrs. Peter Builey, Kingston.

Reports of superintendents next occupied the attention of the delegates.

Mrs. Rose read the report on Sunday observance in absence of Mrs. Kelp and reported three programs, eight sermons, six prayer meetings and five public meetings.

A great amount of work was reported by the Flower Mission, Superintendent Miss C. A. Deyo, who reported the distribution of honor roll for hospital, garments, clothing for Five Point Mission, bags of provisions, toys magazines, secured pledge signers, visited the sick. Scientific Temperance Institution Department reported four schools visited, five meetings held.

Mrs. Carpenter of Gardiner reported Evangelistic work, a number of gospel temperance meetings held, Bibles, testaments and evangelistic literature distributed.

White Ribbon Recruits reported by Mrs. Wells Weaver that this department was of more importance even to young mothers than the young children.

Mrs. George LeFevre gave the report of work among soldiers and sailors, which includes furnishing libraries to tramp vessels making comfort bags and distributing literature.

Mrs. Helen Palmer of Plattekill reported for the anti-narcotic department some efforts to enforce the tobacco law, anti-cigarette Sunday observed in some churches.

Press Work was reported by Mrs. Young. Several local newspapers exclude liquor advertisements and almost every paper in the country reports our work on request of members.

A good report of the literature department was given by the superintendent, Mrs. Edward Scofield of Highland. 15,712 pages of literature have been distributed, one Willard picture placed, ninety maps and posters used, nineteen temperance books given away, nine temperance books placed in libraries. Two W. C. T. U. libraries were reported.

Mrs. Crispell of New Paltz reported more interest taken in school of methods and parliamentary law, saving time and promoting order in the meeting.

The best work ever done in the department was reported by the superintendent of franchise, Mrs. Kate Covert, of Clintondale. Members were urged to help in the enrollment returns to be in by November 1st.

Notes of sympathy from the union were voted to Mrs. Albert, who is very seriously ill, and who has been in the organization of two unions in Ulster county, and also to Mrs. Stephens, the vice president.

once to John R. Hunt, making it clearly understood that Ulster county had given up no part of their title to the estate, but had faithfully tried to fulfill all the provisions of Mr. Hunt's will.

After announcements in regard to arrangements for attending the state convention to be held in Saratoga next week, the delegates with hands joined sang together "Bless be the Tie That Binds," and with a parting prayer by the president, the convention adjourned.

The resolution committee submitted the following report, which was adopted by the convention. With hearts filled with gratitude to God for his unfailing loving kindness we come to this 36th annual convention of the W. C. T. U. of Ulster county, New York. We especially rejoice in the victory for prohibition that will take effect in the current year, 1916. We are also gladdened by the steady advance of temperance sentiment throughout the world and the growth of prohibition territory across the sea and in Canada. We lament the spirit of militarism in our land and that it has been so influential in our own state.

We are grateful that the outlook for justice to woman is a brightful share in a government "for the people and by the people" is promising.

Resolved, that we urge our membership and all women to prepare to use the suffrage when it shall be ours so that our votes shall be significant and always count to advance the reign of righteousness and peace.

Resolved, that our efforts be unremitting to enlist the young people of our state against the legal sale of liquor traffic and to train the children to be total abstainers and to make very much progress in that direction in our own state.

Resolved, that we note with pleasure and thankfulness that after a week the traffic in strong drink, which has been carried on in the towns of New Paltz, Lloyd and Pine

Bush and earnestly hope that all Ulster county will soon be dry.

Resolved, that we consider the almost world-wide war now raging as one of the greatest calamities to the race, especially the innocent suffering women and children and pray that God will in His wisdom overrule this carnage to advance His own wise purposes, and that the rule of the Prince of Peace may speedily govern the nations.

Resolved, that the delegates of this 36th annual convention desire to express to the village of New Paltz, to the officers and pastor of the M. E. Church, to the pastors of all the churches, and especially to the members of the W. C. T. U. of New Paltz, their heartfelt thanks for courtesies and hospitality shown to us during this session.

SPRINGTOWN.

The Rev. Mr. Oggel of the New Paltz Dutch Reformed Church made pastoral calls in this town on Wednesday last.

Very few boarders are to be found in this hamlet at the present time.

Mrs. Mary LeFevre entertained her mother, Mrs. Rufus LeFevre, and children, Sarah and Wilson, on Tuesday.

James Deyo has purchased a new Hudson Super Six automobile.

Mrs. Oscar Deyo and daughter, Marie, spent Thursday in Poughkeepsie.

Mrs. Mary LeFevre and Mrs. Gerret Smith spent their vacation in the Catskill mountains.

Although it is long year our Springtown neighbors do not seem to make very much progress in that line. Impossible that they are bashful.

During the evening refreshments were served and in the early hours of the morning the guests departed, leaving their host and mother royal entertainers. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Stewart of New York city, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin LeFevre, Miss Marie and Bertha Deyo, Miss Mary LeFevre, Anna, Helen, Dorothy, Charles and Donald Deyo, Wilson LeFevre of Kingston, Mrs. Mary LeFevre and son, Earl.

James E. Deyo seems to be the only fisherman in this part of the country any more. Evertime he goes fishing he catches a three pound bass and eels several feet in length.

Harold Wyckol of Philadelphia spent Sunday and Monday with Miss Mary LeFevre.

The Misses Marie and Bertha Deyo spent Monday afternoon with Miss Mary LeFevre.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon H. Whelton and Mrs. Etta Deyo will spend the winter in Poughkeepsie.

Emery Deyo expects to start for Florida soon.

Mrs. John H. Reilly has recovered from her recent illness.

School starts next Monday morning at nine o'clock with Miss Beulah Young as school teacher.

Ira D. Fitch is spending some time with his grandmother, Mrs. Ira Deyo.

The New Paltz Normal School opens session October fourth. Among those who will continue their studies from this place are Miss Flora Carfield, Wilson Lorenzen and Marie and Bertha Deyo and Arthur Nell.

Edward Michael Smith and Peter Lester Seger, who have been boarding at Mossy Brook Farm, have returned to their homes in Mt. Vernon.

The Misses Helen and Dorothy Deyo have returned home after spending a month in Walden.

Many of our progressing farmers are shipping potatoes to Poughkeepsie, and report a good market.

TOPICS NEW YORK IS TALKING ABOUT

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, Sept. 29.—The defeat of President Wilson's candidate for the senate and the renomination of Senator James Martine in the New Jersey primaries is the severest blow the popular Democratic fallacy that "President Wilson is stronger than his party" has thus far received. Senator Martine's election as senator six years ago was brought about by Mr. Wilson, then governor, at which time Mr. Wilson betrayed his own political sponsor, James Smith. Having made Martine senator, Mr. Wilson thought he owned him and then, on one or two occasions, Martine showed some independence and refused to vote as the White House directed. Mr. Wilson became very indignant and decreed that Martine should not return to the senate. Accordingly, he lathered the candidacy of John W. Westcott, attorney general of New Jersey, and caused all the influence of the White House and of the Democratic state machine to be exerted in Westcott's behalf. The result speaks for itself. Westcott was defeated and Martine renominated by 16,000 plurality. Democratic politicians in Jersey declare that the rank and file were not especially strong for Martine but that they bitterly resented President Wilson's autocratic attitude toward their senator and his interference in the affairs of the state and that Martine's nomination is, therefore, far more a rebuke for Wilson than a victory for Martine. The victory of Joseph S. Frothingham over former Governor Franklin Murphy in the Republican senatorial primaries is a source of especial gratification to the progressive element of the Republican party. Mr. Frothingham's election is regarded as assured.

Massachusetts Spurns Wilson.

Not alone in New Jersey has President Wilson sustained a humiliating defeat. In Massachusetts President Wilson has not only been repudiated by his own party, he has been slapped in the face. General Charles H. Cole, former adjutant general of the state, sought for nomination for governor in Massachusetts and enjoyed the active support of the Wilson administration as well as of the state organization. Every federal office holder in the state had his coat off working for Cole. On the other hand, a man named Mansfield, less able and less well known, sought the Democratic nomination. The character of the administration's opposition to Mansfield was such that it aroused the indignation of the Bay State Democrats and 45,000 Democrats voted for him, which gave him the nomination. The fight was split the Democratic party wide open. The federal office holders have been so bitter in their opposition to Mansfield that they cannot support him now, and neither can the president without stultifying himself. The result is that the reelection of Gov. Samuel McCall, never seriously in doubt, is absolutely assured and that the Wilson prestige has lost a few more ribs.

Perkins on the Fall

George W. Perkins, than whom no one is more competent to speak of business conditions, has written an open letter to Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the president, asking that Mr. Wilson point to a single specific instance wherein the Wilson administration has helped the business of the country. Mr. Perkins points to the "Seven Sisters" legislation which Mr. Wilson caused to be enacted by the New Jersey legislature and widely advertised as solving the entire trust problem and asserts that there has never been any attempt to enforce them and that they have accomplished nothing. He points out that the federal trade commission has no power to modify the Sherman Law and that he has yet to learn of an instance where that commission has been of service to business. He declares that by withdrawing President Wilson from the United States out of its natural opportunity to extend its trade in the Orient, and that by its attitude toward those Americans who in the past have gone into Mexico, invested their money and risked their lives, the Wilson administration has done everything possible to discourage future enterprise of that character. The Perkins letter constitutes a complete exposure of the hollowness of Mr. Wilson's claims that his administration has helped business.

Farmers Must Pay.

Hon. James Wilson, who enjoys the record of having been secretary of agriculture longer than any other man in the history of the nation, has issued a statement in which he asserts that "the farmer must pay the freight." Mr. Wilson points out that the farmer is the largest shipper in the country and that obviously the increased cost of operating railroads resulting from the Wilson-Adamson wage increase law, must simply place an additional burden on the farmer. He says that the farmers are just and even liberal and that if, on thorough investigation, it had been found that certain railway men were receiving insufficient pay to enable them to live decently and to support and educate their families, the farmer would not have objected to paying his share of the increased cost of shipping, but that the farmer regards it as entirely unreasonable to ask him to stand for increased freight rates, brought about by a material increase of pay to the men who are already the best paid among railway employees, an increase in which so many even hard-working employees of the railroads have no share.

Many Would Be Hosts.

The determination of the administration to transfer the Mexican conference from New London to Atlantic City, where there are so many delightful diversions and where time may be filled with a maximum of enjoyment, has led to keen competition from other cities which would like the distinction of entertaining this unique and innocuous conference and even more to be the recipient of the funds which the United States is expending so lavishly for the entertainment of the Carranza delegates and their suites. There is prospect that as the winter advances the leading southern resorts will become aspirants for a share of this prosperity, and lively competition between the Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Louisiana resorts is expected to take place. Senators are expected to take part in the competition and to exert the same powerful influence which has long enabled them to effect the maintenance of obsolete southern navy yards, and the expenditure of vast sums to refurbish those which the best military and naval judgment has decreed should be abandoned. The only menace to this program is the somewhat hasty and choleric temper of Carranza.

Japanese Troubles Ahead.

That difficult and delicate negotiations with Japan, made all the more so by the blundering of the Wilson administration, are in store for the United States is disclosed by the statement of the Japanese ambassador. Protracted negotiations between Ambassador Chinda and Secretary Bryan regarding the California land problem, the right of Japanese to become naturalized Americans, etc., never came to anything and the new ambassador says that as soon as the European war is ended Japan will earnestly renew her representations.

The last coat for the fall season is obtainable in many extremely attractive styles. Invariably it is seven-eighths to full length. Velours de laine and other novelty pile fabrics are used in these garments. The coat illustrated is of dark brown velours de laine with gracefully flared coat semi-fitted at the waistline. Silk stitching affords very attractive trimming and a deep border of beaver fur serves to finish the hem, cuffs, and convertible collar.

SOME SCREAMER IS MRS. BUBOLTZ

Not Only Screamed But Kicked so Hard Her Shoes Flew Off While Protesting Against Separation From Her Husband.

What General Sherman said war was tapped at the city hall this morning when Recorder Lang after a trial had sentenced Michael Buboltz to fifteen days in jail for creating a disturbance on Third avenue, and had discharged Mike's wife, guilty of the same offence, because she had a nursing baby, born in April, besides five other children. When Policeman Snyder led Mike from the court room, Mrs. Buboltz waved her hands in the air and shouted that she would not be separated from her husband but would go to jail, too, and she followed her husband and the officer out.

When Mike was placed in the lock-up Mrs. Buboltz put up a fight to follow him in and her wild screams as she fought to get loose from the policeman who held her brought all of the officials in the various departments at the hall, running to the scene as it sounded as though some one was being murdered.

When Mrs. Buboltz saw that she could not get into the lock-up she followed the officers into police headquarters despite the fact they had told her she was at liberty to return home with her young son, who had accompanied his parents to court. Screaming after screams rent the air as Mrs. Buboltz hung herself to the floor and beat a tattoo on it with her feet. Her low shoes flew off her feet and she ran against the side of the room with a bang.

Probably never since the hall was built, such a scene been witnessed in it. The employees of other departments found it impossible to work as the screams of the woman penetrated even to the third floor of the building.

Finally Mrs. Buboltz saw that she could not get into the lock-up she followed the officers into police headquarters despite the fact they had told her she was at liberty to return home with her young son, who had accompanied his parents to court. Screaming after screams rent the air as Mrs. Buboltz hung herself to the floor and beat a tattoo on it with her feet. Her low shoes flew off her feet and she ran against the side of the room with a bang.

Mrs. Buboltz stopped screaming. For a minute while she inspected the padlock on the door of the lock-up within whose walls her husband had been shut, and when she found she could not open it she hurried herself to the floor and beat with hands and feet against the heavy door while she screamed until she was exhausted. Stopping to recover her breath she leaped to her feet and walked up and down the lower corridor of the hall shouting and screaming in Polish.

She kept up the uproar until half an hour later her husband was led forth and placed in Policeman Foul's auto and taken to the county jail. Mrs. Buboltz followed to the door and made a desperate effort to fling herself into the automobile and while Foul bundled her husband into the car Snyder crossed the woman at the shoulders and led her back into the corridor. He had gotten her but a few feet when she jerked herself to the floor and screamed and spit at the mouth. Finally the officer got her onto a long padded bench that sits in the hall near police headquarters and held her there until she had recovered her self control and had somewhat ceased her screaming.

Later she and her son were taken to their home in the police department buggy by driver Simon Wood. The prelude to the most unusual scene ever witnessed at the hall was the trial of the Buboltz on a charge of disorderly conduct lodged by Mrs. Katie Van Steenburgh of Third avenue, the neighbor of the Buboltz. She had several other neighbors in court to testify to the trouble between her and Mike and his wife. According to her story the Buboltz boy had taken a bicycle belonging to her boy from in front of the house and she had gone down to get it when Mike came out and called her all sorts of names in Polish including the one "black mare". Mrs. Buboltz chased her up the road with a rock in her hands, and some one threw a stone at her she said.

Mike on the other hand claimed that the bicycle belonged to his boy who had bought it of the Van Steenburgh boy for fifteen cents. He said Mr. Van Steenburgh among other things called him a bald headed bull and a bald headed devil.

After several witnesses had testified Recorder Lang asked Mrs. Van Steenburgh if she had any more witnesses when Buboltz's sister, who was in court, informed the court that she wanted to lodge a complaint against her brother and his wife and wanted a warrant for their arrest for some trouble that occurred a day or so before the trouble being tried out this morning. Recorder Lang informed her he would hear her after he had disposed of the present case.

There being no further witnesses Recorder Lang sentenced Mike to jail and dismissed his wife on the grounds previously stated.

The uproar then followed. Mike has been in trouble a number of times. His wife, who created such a disturbance today, has had him arrested for mistreating her when drunk, and then has pleaded with Recorder Lang to let her husband go.

Passport Peddlers Wanted.

The police of Poughkeepsie are looking for Rudolph Klinker and a woman companion who came to that city two months ago and while taking orders for photographs, represented themselves as agents of the Holland-American steamship line, able to secure passports and anxious to help the German cause. # Messinger's Saturday Sale

"As pure as sunlight from the sky are foods that you come here to buy." We don't like to talk about ourselves, but long years of doing business in the one locality speaks well for our methods of serving customers. We are sticklers for high meat quality—a habit we have formed—and we refuse to handle any other grade. We put quality before price every time, and have learned that invariably customers who have been attracted elsewhere by the lure of low prices come back to us with the cry "Never Again!" Practice "Safety First" by trading here.

Women Like to Trade at Planthaber's Saturdays

It is the fundamental appeal which brings action. Perhaps this accounts for the increasing patronage we enjoy from the women of Kingston and vicinity. From the beginning of our business we have appealed to the women as the market where most housewives trade. And women tell us they enjoy trading here because we cater to their food needs. Well, we enjoy catering to them, because we know that Madam is the purchasing agent of her family, and to her we say, "Come again—Saturday, if possible."

ELLENVILLE

Ellenville, Sept. 29.—J. W. Coons and family, accompanied by Mrs. Coons's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Cook-Ingham of Red Hook, are on an auto trip to the Delaware Water Gap this week.

Lemuel DuBois has returned from an extended stay at Clifton Springs very much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Dutcher, Mr. Dutcher's mother and Mrs. Lillie Bloomer Lyon are spending the week in the Catskills.

Thomas B. Tuthill and James M. Kirby of Washingtonville, Orange county, have been spending a few days in Ellenville. They made the trip by auto and have visited Ashokan dam and the world's fair at Grahamsville during their stay in town.

Chris and Tony Cenegal of Middletown have been recent guests in town.

Garrett A. Shover, who has operated the Press Linotype for some months, has decided to go to the city and Herbert L. Muth, a former employee, will return to Ellenville and take his old place at the machine.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Goldberg motored to New York on Wednesday. W. Ewigkeit, the tailor, for some time located in the Richards block, will move to the store lately occupied by Friedman, the tailor, in the Stoehr block.

Mrs. A. T. Wilkinson and son, who spent the summer in Ellenville, have returned to their home at Poughkeepsie.

B. S. Thornton has sold his wagon business, including his stock of wagons, to John McDowell, who has taken possession.

John Drennon, who drives the Wayside Inn bus, has lost a finger by getting it fast in an electric motor.

J. W. Burr and Mrs. Burr and Mrs. Moorcock and daughter have closed their home on Hermance street and returned to Brooklyn for the winter.

Rev. W. S. Maines and family are to return this week from a month's vacation which was spent at Andover, N. J. Mr. Maines will occupy his pulpit at the Reformed Church on Sunday, and the Sunday school will reopen its session at the close of the morning service.

Beginning October 1, the village drug stores will close each evening at 8:30, except Saturdays. Sunday hours will be 10 a. m. to 12 m., 6 to 7 p. m.

The water superintendent and a force of men are putting the eight inch main down through Water street.

C. A. Van Wagener, with a party of friends, including Dr. J. C. Coles, are on an auto trip to New York.

The glass factory has five blowers making big demijohns to go to Cuba.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boquer have returned to New York for the winter.

The Misses Harriet Bradford and Carolyn Clark have been on a delightful auto trip through the state, making the longest stop at Syracuse.

Alice Divine, M. D., Miss A. E. Cox, Mrs. Nelson Terwilliger and son are on an auto trip to Butler, New Jersey, where they are to visit their friends, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bull.

Miss Sarah Wood, former teacher of mathematics in the high school, has gone to Stamford, Conn., to attend the wedding of a cousin, Miss Nellie Wood and later she will visit friends at Baltimore and Washington, D. C.

Miss Serena DeGraff of St. Remy is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. R. Carver.

Mr. Mongola, Farr Brothers proprietor, has thirty guests at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Craft of Mobile, Ala., are visiting their sisters, Mrs. John Faber and Miss Kate Craft. This is Mr. Craft's first visit back to his old home town in twenty-four years.

Gerow Van Wick and A. J. L. Wolf were among the exhibitors at the Grahamsville fair, having a tent in which they exhibited a live alligator. They secured Rosenberger's closed candy wagon and megaphone and started early in the day and they certainly did their part in making the "World's Fair" a big success.

Mowell J. MacKnight of Dinghamton is visiting his aunt, Mrs. George D. Edsell. He made the trip on his motorcycle in less than five hours.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Cookingham who have been spending some months at Salisbury, Md., have moved to Vineland, N. J.

At a meeting of the painters of the village recently held at Norbury hall, they decided that the rate of wages shall be $2.75 for eight hours work from October 1.

Miss Greta Kapp has returned from a stay of several days in New York.

Miss Virginia Marshall has returned to her home at Walden, after spending the summer in Ellenville.

Miss Viola Wright has gone to Padmont, N. Y., where she will engage at teaching. Miss Wright graduated from Oswego Normal in June.

The Women's Club will hold its first meeting of the year next Monday afternoon.

Assistant Postmaster Charles Cleveland accompanied the Misses Mildred Easton, Mildred Carman and Bernice Gaskell to the "World's Fair" on Wednesday. They made the trip on horseback.

Owing to the official visit of the State Great Pocomontas on October 11th, members of Maratanza Council, 127, Degree of Pocomontas are requested to meet in regular council on next Tuesday's sleep at the 8th and setting of the sun. The degree team is especially urged to be present.

Invitations have been issued in Kingston Ellenville relatives by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holmes of Walden for the marriage of their daughter, Virginia M., to William E. Myers of Greenville, N. J., on Saturday, October 14th.

Rev. Mr. Lawrence of Hudson will occupy the pulpit of the Lutheran Church on Sunday. All the Sunday schools of the village will reopen on Sunday.

HUGHES PASSED THROUGH KINGSTON

Former Governor Charles E. Hughes passed through Kingston about 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon on his way to attend the Republican convention, having made the trip from Pittsburgh where he spoke the night before. The train made no stops.

Hughes headquarters were opened this afternoon by the Ulster County Branch of the Hughes Alliance in the vacant store in the Cordis building, adjoining the court house.

The headquarters will be kept open throughout the campaign, and voters are invited to call there.

The meeting of the Ulster County Branch will be held at the court house at eight o'clock this evening, and will be addressed by the Hon. Arthur Soper.

CAUGHT WITH THE GOODS.
 Detective James Meets a Rude Thief and Lands Him.

"He's rude in name and nature," exclaimed Miss Lila R. James, detective in Gimbel Bros. store, when she appeared before Magistrate Deuel in night court last night as complainant against Leverett B. Rudy, of 175 Eighth avenue.

Rudy attempted to help himself to two pairs of silk socks Thursday afternoon, she said. Following him out of the store, Miss James demanded that he give them up. He insisted that he had bought them.

When she tried to take them a crowd of 400 gathered. Miss James told the magistrate that Rudy tore her sweater and shirtwaist before she could hand him over to Patrolman Warren.

The prisoner pleaded not guilty. On a charge of petit larceny he was held in $500 bail for general sessions.—New York Tribune.

Welcome Sunday at Clinton Ave. S. S.
 The coming Sunday will be "Welcome Sunday" for all departments of the Clinton Avenue M. E. Sunday school, and the many teachers are looking forward to giving a cordial greeting to all former and new pupils next Sunday, after the long discontinuation of the school sessions.

It is hoped that every scholar will be in his or her place, especially, as on Sunday announcements will be made as to the following Sunday which will be observed as "Rally Day." On Sunday, October 8th, "Rally Day Sunday" for the school, an excellent program of songs, etc., will be given and Charles Van Aken, a prominent Methodist layman of New York city will be the speaker. This announcement should interest all teachers and pupils in the school.

In Surrogate's Court.
 A hearing was had before Surrogate Gil in the surrogate's court today in the matter of the judicial sale of the estate of E. W. Darrow, as executor of the estate of Rensselaer E. Winchell of this city and a decree passing and approving the accounts was granted. Philip Elting is attorney for the executor.

Soiskanishade Club to Meet.
 The first fall meeting of the Kijik Club of St. John's Episcopal Church will be held on Tuesday evening next at 7.30 o'clock at the home of the directress, Mrs. Reed, No. 43 Crown street. As a welcome will be extended by the club members at this time to the new rector, all members are urged to be present.

Short-Cuts.
 In Wednesday morning at half after ten o'clock Miss Emma Coons and Sherman Short, both of this city were quietly married at the parsonage of the Fair Street Reformed Church by the pastor, the Rev. F. B. Seeley. The bride wore a handsome traveling suit of blue cloth, fur trimmed, and a large black picture hat, and carried bride roses. She was attended by Miss Cecelia Goldpaugh, as maid of honor, who was also prettily gowned in dark blue cloth and more a black picture hat. She carried pink roses. The best man was Elwood Humphrey. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Short left for Niagara Falls, and on their return they will go at once to their newly furnished home on Bruyn avenue.

Carpenter-Cahill.
 A quiet autumnal wedding was solemnized at St. Joseph's Church on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock when Miss Elizabeth Cahill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cahill, and Clarence Carpenter were united in marriage by Father Brown. The bride wore a handsome gown of dark blue silk foulard and black picture hat, her flowers being bride roses. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Carrie Cahill, who as maid of honor wore a handsome gown of dark blue silk foulard with a corsage of blue and pink poinsettias. The bridegroom wore a tuxedo and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Lewis Carpenter, brother of the groom, was the best man.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Mrs. J. G. Van Slyke has issued invitations for an "At Home" to meet Mrs. Warren C. Van Slyke, on Friday, October 6, from three to five o'clock.

Mrs. Nicholas Stock entertained the ladies of St. Peter's Sewing Circle Thursday afternoon in St. Peter's School Hall with a Diamond Disc phonograph concert.

The Mendelssohn Club will begin its rehearsals for the season next Monday evening at the studio of the Kingston Conservatory of Music, corner of Wall and John streets, under the direction of Harry P. Dodge, who will be the musical director for the coming year. A large attendance of members is expected as the club plans to make its season the most successful in its history.

The fall social season was opened by the daughters of Isabella giving a delightful social evening to all members at Pithman Hall on Thursday evening. Those present had the pleasure of listening to some delightful vocal selections sung by Mrs. William H. Rieser. During the evening fine refreshments were served by Miss Kenny. In addition to the social features of the evening, arrangements for the Glee Club and for the charity work of the society were perfected. The evening was greatly enjoyed by all present.

On Thursday evening a surprise party was held at the home of Miss Anna Harris in honor of her birthday. About 5 o'clock a gathering of about 25 went there and spent a pleasant evening in games and other amusements. Miss Harris was presented with some presents which she appreciated very much. About 11 o'clock, refreshments were served. In the few hours of the morning lady departed for their homes, wishing Miss Harris many happy returns of the day. All devoted their best to a charming entertainer.

Oscar Tschirky, the famous chef of the Waldorf-Astoria, celebrated his fiftieth birthday anniversary on Thursday, and a reunion dinner will take place at his farm at New Paltz on Sunday which will be attended by Mr. and Mrs. Tschirky and their daughter, Mr. Tschirky's mother and his two sons. As a surprise for Oscar, his wife brought to New York on Thursday the mother of the famous chef. In commenting on his birthday Oscar said: "If I were to count my life by the hours I have toiled I figure I would be about eighty by this time. I have always worked sixteen to eighteen hours a day. Most persons don't work more than eight hours, and some get along on less. It was not so in my case."

Kijik Club to Meet.
 The first fall meeting of the Kijik Club of St. John's Episcopal Church will be held on Tuesday evening next at 7.30 o'clock at the home of the directress, Mrs. Reed, No. 43 Crown street. As a welcome will be extended by the club members at this time to the new rector, all members are urged to be present.

Soiskanishade Club to Meet.
 The Soiskanishade Club will resume its meetings next week, and on Monday afternoon, October 2nd, will hold the first session of its third year. The club, with its season, study, American Art, Literature, History and Music and will meet with Mrs. Joseph F. Bellanger at No. 8 John street next Monday afternoon.

Short-Cuts.
 In Wednesday morning at half after ten o'clock Miss Emma Coons and Sherman Short, both of this city were quietly married at the parsonage of the Fair Street Reformed Church by the pastor, the Rev. F. B. Seeley. The bride wore a handsome traveling suit of blue cloth, fur trimmed, and a large black picture hat, and carried bride roses. She was attended by Miss Cecelia Goldpaugh, as maid of honor, who was also prettily gowned in dark blue cloth and more a black picture hat. She carried pink roses. The best man was Elwood Humphrey. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Short left for Niagara Falls, and on their return they will go at once to their newly furnished home on Bruyn avenue.

Carpenter-Cahill.
 A quiet autumnal wedding was solemnized at St. Joseph's Church on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock when Miss Elizabeth Cahill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cahill, and Clarence Carpenter were united in marriage by Father Brown. The bride wore a handsome gown of dark blue silk foulard and black picture hat, her flowers being bride roses. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Carrie Cahill, who as maid of honor wore a handsome gown of dark blue silk foulard with a corsage of blue and pink poinsettias. The bridegroom wore a tuxedo and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Lewis Carpenter, brother of the groom, was the best man.

SHAPPLY UNDERPRICED SALE OF Carpets, Rugs, &c. BOUGHT FROM THE STOCKS OF J. L. BUTZEL'S SONS OF SAUGERTIES Less Than Wholesale Cost

In the face of the great shortage of dyes and wools we make this startling announcement. Under normal conditions it would be of unusual importance in itself, but at this time, when the country is confronted with a dye and wool shortage, these offerings will come as a most welcome bit of news for those contemplating the purchase of Floor Coverings.

In the warmth and richness of their colorings and their beauty of design, the Rugs involved in this sale compare favorably with those wonderfully hand-dyed and hand-woven Rugs of the Orient.

On account of the depth to which we have slashed prices, we must insist upon STRICTLY CASH SALES.

DAY NURSERY NEEDS APPLES

A splendid opportunity for someone to give a barrel of apples to a worthy cause is indicated in the monthly report of Mrs. Laura MacMillan, of the Bureau of Social Service, who states that such a gift will be most gratefully received at the Day Nursery, where poor children of the city are cared for during each day.

The annual meeting of the bureau will be held on Friday, October 13. Mrs. MacMillan's report is as follows:

During the month of August the Bureau of Social Service has investigated, supervised or assisted 33 families. The secretary has co-operated with the following agencies: Commissioners of charities; police department; recorder's court; judge of the supreme court; judge of the county court; sheriff of Ulster county; district attorney; Daughters of Isabella; Grand Army of the Republic; Spanish War Veterans; county agent; county tuberculosis nurse; department of health; Kingston City Hospital; Sunshine Society; Loyal Friend's Aid Society; Salvation Army; several churches and individuals. Thirty-three days' work has been obtained for women. There has been no problem of unemployment for men during the summer. The problems of the families, which the Bureau has investigated and cared for have been: widowhood; illness; old age; intemperance; desertion; and non-support. In the four cases of non-support and desertion that have come to the notice of the Bureau, attempts have been made to make the husband of the family pay toward the support of the family. Three of these cases were successful. The fourth is pending.

The Day Nursery, which is conducted in co-operation with the Monday Afternoon Sewing Club, has given 95 days' care during the month of August. The Day Nursery is a great help to mothers, who are trying to keep their families together. As this is harvest time if anyone would like to contribute some apples, they would be most gratefully received, and used for the children who come to the Day Nursery. Anyone wishing to donate clothes, especially for children, will kindly communicate with Mrs. Laura MacMillan, 27 E. O'Reilly street, telephone call 1536.

Sent to Tuberculosis Camp.

Thomas Mahar, 38 years, was arrested on Thursday afternoon for loitering around the city hall. Mahar is afflicted with tuberculosis and instead of sending him to jail Recorder Lang thought it best to send him to the tuberculosis camp.

AUTOMOBILE NOTES.

William D. Ryan's Washington avenue automobile agency has sold an Oldsmobile touring car to Rudolph Gettle of Rosendale.

Directors of the Poughkeepsie Automobile Club have made a complaint on the Poughkeepsie-Highland ferry service as inadequate for increasing automobile traffic. It was also stated that the Air Line ferry service from Saugerties to Tivoli is no longer available for automobiles, and that the lack of a state road connection makes the Greendale-Catskill crossing undesirable.

REAL ESTATE SALES.

Deeds Recently Recorded in County Clerk's Office.

The following deeds have been filed in the office of the county clerk:

Apollonia Zeilmann of the town of Saugerties to John Zeilmann of the same place, a parcel of land in the town of Saugerties. Consideration $1.

No Hunting Pheasants.

Although the hunting season in Ulster county will open on Saturday, the attention of hunters is called especially to the fact that there will not be any open season for hunting pheasants, the conservation department some time ago having made an order declaring a closed season on pheasants in Ulster county until October 1, 1916. This action was taken after an investigation and on account of the danger of extermination of pheasants.

Queen Esther Supper.

Why Do We Sell Nettleton Shoes ?

Because everywhere in the shoe world we heard such phrases as these:

"Will wear as long as a Nettleton," "As stylish as a Nettleton."

"As well made and well finished as a Nettleton."

"Very well," said we, "if Nettleton Shoes are the standard of quality, we want them for our customers."

Experience has justified our decision.

PROCLAMATION.

The People of the State of New York, by the grace of God free and independent: To the Sheriff of the county of Ulster, Greeting:—We command you that you summon to be and appear at a term of the supreme court of the county of New York, to be held by a justice of the supreme court, at the court house, in Kingston, in and for the county of Ulster, on the 2nd Monday of October, 1916, the several persons who shall have been drawn to serve as grand and petit jurors at the said court, and we further command you to bring before the said court all prisoners then being in the jail of the said county of Ulster, together with all the process and proceedings any way concerning them in your hands. And we further command you to make proclamation in the manner prescribed by law, notifying all persons bound to appear at the said court, by recognition or otherwise, to appear thereat, and requiring all justices of the peace, coroners and other officers who have taken any recognizance for the appearance of any person at the said court, to return such recognizances, inquisitions, and examinations, to the said court on the opening thereof on the first day of its sitting, and have then and there this precept.

Witness, Hon. G. D. B. Haskin, one of the Justices of our Supreme Court, at the Court House, in Kingston, in said County, the 15th day of September, 1916.

P. G. FLAVER, District Attorney.

In pursuance to the above precept, I hereby make proclamation that a term of the supreme court of the state of New York and jail delivery, will be held at the court house in Kingston, in and for the County of Ulster, on the 2nd Monday of October next, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of that day; and all persons who shall have been drawn to serve as grand and petit jurors at the said court, are required to be and there present, to proceed as may be just, and all persons bound to appear at the said court, by recognition or otherwise, are required to appear thereat; and all justices of the peace, coroners and other officers who have taken any recognizance for the appearance of any person at the said court, are required to return such recognizances, inquisitions, and examinations, to the said court on the opening thereof, and to be and there present with their rolls and records, indictments and remembrances, to do these things which to their office pertain.

A missionary was baptizing one day with an Arab stonecutter.

"Give me $7 a week," said the Arab.

"That is too much," replied the missionary. "You only charge $6 to your fellow Arabs, and they make you wait for your money. I pay spot cash."

"Yes, but you ought to be glad to get it," said the stonecutter.

"You do not know how much my fellow Arabs despise me for dealing with you at all, because you are an infidel, you know."

The stronger a Christian a man is the more of an infidel they think him to be. Missionaries were unwelcome in that country. Only by their medical work did they get any foothold at all. There have perhaps been fewer converts there than on any other mission field. But missions have been established there less than thirty years. Sometimes several generations of missionaries live and work and die so that their successors may see the fruit of the labors of them all.—World Outlook.

Crocodile Tears.

The expression "crocodile tears" can be found in almost every European language, but it is doubtful if one in a thousand of those who use it has an idea of its origin. We are told in the Bestiary of Guillaume le Clerc that when the crocodile finds an unwary traveler it devours him, but afterward weeps over him all the rest of its life. This is very evidently the allusion in "Othello." "Each drop she falls would prove a crocodile."

There is another version of the fable, however, which is more often referred to in literature and according to which the crocodile sheds tears in order to allure the traveler to destruction. Shakespeare alludes to this in the passage where he tells how

The mournful crocodile With sorrow snarls, and rending passengers.

—2 Henry VI., 1. 23.

Conflicting Duties.

The most difficult thing in life seems to me to recognize which is the higher of two conflicting duties, and those to whom it is easiest must have, I think, not only the most happiness, but genius. If goodness were always quite simple, what could be more delightful than to be good always? It is, however, a sad thing, when the understanding and the affections are at variance, when one has to stop and consider which of two courses is morally incumbent on one, and without always finding a solution. It is sad, because it shakes one's faith in that which ought to be the surest of guides—namely, in one's own conscience. And, let one choose what he will, it leaves in his mind a sting, some thing to regret.—Paul Hersey.

More Soldiers Going Home.

The Second Battalion of the Second Regiment passed through Kingston this morning via the Walkill Valley and West Shore Railroads en route for the home stations at Schenectady and Gloversville. The battalion and equipment occupied 22 cars, making up the third section of the regimental train, the first two sections having already gone on to Troy. The soldiers arrived here about 8 o'clock, being a couple of hours behind schedule, and the train went on a little after 9. Celebrations are planned in Gloversville and Schenectady for the home-coming today.

MENKE'S DAILY SPORTING LETTER

(By Frank G. Menke.)

New York, Sept. 29.—Ban Johnson made possible the great American League bunting race of 1916. If it hadn't been for his shrewdness, added to his dictatorial power, the affair would have been a walkaway for the Red Sox.

Remember the comment that was created in the springtime when Ban engineered the deal that sent Tris Speaker to the Indians? Gobs and gobs of our most astute citizens rose right up and remarked that Ban was "tokeying" the race; that he was weakening the Red Sox and not doing any good for the then hopeless appearing Indians. But the hot polloi was wrong. Ban's move ultimately generated more thrills than have skidded along baseball's spinal column for a very extensive period.

If Ban had balked that Speaker deal the Red Sox, assisted by the terrific clouting of the said Tris, would have clinched the flag along about August 1st. This, alone and unaided, is good for at least 10 victories in a normal season. Battling under the Red Sox standard this year he would have turned probably a dozen defeats into triumphs. And the race couldn't have been dignified by such a game after mid-season.

Sour Grape Tactics.

No one ever made any special howls concerning the timeliness of the Phillies ball yard until the Phils became afflicted with the pennant chasing fever. And now some magnates whose clubs are sniffing the dust from the heels of the living Phils, are threatening to lodge protests against it.

It is small time stuff—something beneath the dignity of a really big man—to complain now about that park. It is small, yes, but no smaller than it was in the days when the Phils were constant contenders. If it is such a distinct advantage for the Quakers now, why wasn't it so in other years?

Cravath Showed Up Dreyfuss.
Dismissing on the "band box" park in Philadelphia recalls a little story told to us by William F. Baker, owner of the Phils.

"Cravath lammed out a homer one day last summer while the Pirates were playing in our park," said Baker. "When he did so, I turned to Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the Pirates and remarked: 'Profits good, eh?'"

"Barney sort of sniffed and said: 'Oh that's no trick to knock home runs in this place. Anybody ought to be able to do it.'"

"I pointed out to Barney that his men weren't doing it very often, now were the sluggers of the other teams that visited our park."

"Oh well," said Barney, "Cravath may be a better hitter than you, but he won't do any harm in business in my park. The rest of the ball park is not a bad thing either."

A few weeks later he swung westward and dropped in on the Pirates. Cravath hooked one of the offerings of a Pittsburgh pitcher and shot it over the left field fence—regarded as an impossible feat. And Barney skillfully avoided meeting me afterward depriving me of a chance to ha ha him a bit."

Kauff Back in Stride.

Benjamin Kauff apparently has located himself during the recent winning streak of the Giants—and cough, how conspicuous he has become!

The star of the dead and planted Feds showed nothing startling until along about the last of August. And then he cut loose. Ever since the Giants owners have been afraid that he'll bust down their ball park. Benny has been whipping the ball into the grandstands or against the bleachers with extreme violence, and he counts that day wasted that does not get his name in the home run column.

Kauff's holding has been surprisingly brilliant during the past month. He never was boosted as a defensive player yet he has been covering acres of territory all of a sudden, making sensational catches and throwing like a speaker.

"Kauff has arrived," declares McGraw and John seems to be quite correct.

The Last Gladiators.

It was in A. D. 430 that the edict was passed which forever abolished the gladiatorial combats. In the deserts of Libya there lived a man named Telemachus, who, touched by the cruel stories of the combats, went to Rome, leaped over the barrier of the arena of the Coliseum, threw himself between the groups of fighters and implored them in the name of Christ to desist. Telemachus fell, slain by the swords of the gladiators, but there never was another fight in the Coliseum.

The spirit of the monk had its effect, and the above mentioned edict was soon passed.

Betrothals in Germany.

In Germany an elaborate method of announcing the betrothal practically puts an end to all breach of promise cases. As soon as a couple become engaged the pair visit the town hall and declare their willingness to marry and sign, with witnesses, a series of documents which render a change of mind on the man's part practically out of the question. When either party wishes to withdraw from this agreement the pair again visit the town hall, and additional documents are formally signed, witnessed and sealed. The authorities then determine the question of compensation for injured feelings, etc.

HARD TO GET STARTED

Eddie Cicotte Had Much Trouble in Landing in Majors.

Famous "Knuckle" Ball Artist Was Ambitious to Play With Detroit Tigers—Made Reputation in Western League Circuit.

Eddie Cicotte—the famous slab artist of the White Sox, had his full share of ups and downs before he finally succeeded in breaking into the majors to stay awhile. "Knuckles" was born in Detroit 32 years ago and it was the ambition of his youth to land a job with the Tigers of his native city, but he didn't succeed. After making a name for himself with semipro clubs in Detroit and with the Calumet club, Eddie was given a tryout by the Striped Cats, but Bill Armour, after looking over Cicotte's wares, sent him off to Augusta, Ga. Having won 15 games to lose in the Sal circuit, Eddie was recalled to Detroit in August, but was released to Indianapolis the following season. He had but a brief stay in Hoosierdom and was then turned over to Des Moines, winning

Eddie Cicotte.

18 games and losing half as many. At the close of the Western league season Eddie was recalled by the Tigers, but was sent back to the West in 1907, landing with the Lincoln club. It was while twirling in Bill Bryan's town that Eddie made a reputation that insured a major league berth. He won 23 games and lost only ten for the Nebraska capital, and the Red Sox nabbed him. He remained with the Bostonians until the middle of the 1912 season, making a good record, when he was transferred to the Couleiskey clan.

LARRY CHENEY USES SPITTER

Brooklyn Pitcher Relates First Experience With Curve Ball—Will Experiment Again.

"I pitched my first curve ball in the National league during our last trip to Pittsburgh," said Larry Cheney, one of Brooklyn's star pitchers, the other day. "I never had a curve, and every player and manager in the majors knows it."

"I have always depended on my fast one—my spitter—and using my head, but I have lately been working with a curve, and think I will fool a lot of the wise boys."

"I took a chance in the fifth inning against Pittsburgh when Bob Harmon was up, with two out, and we were four runs to the good. I offered Bob as nice a curve as you ever saw. He came near making a hit off me, but McCarty made a great play and retired him. I'll try the experiment again."
